

Internal Medicine Residents Academic Year 2022-2023

	Besseri Ako, MD, PGY 3 Dr. Ako received his Medical Degree and completed undergraduate studies at the Université de Yaoundé I Faculté de Médecine et des Sciences Biomédicales, Cameroon. Dr. Ako is a current member of the American College of Physicians, American Medical Association and served on the Cameroon Medical Corp. In his spare time, Besseri enjoys playing and watching soccer (Manchester City Soccer Club), spending time with family and friends, reading novels, and listening to music.
	Brian Chase Bennett, DO, PGY 3 Dr. Bennett received his Medical Degree from West Virginia School of Osteopathic Medicine, Lewisburg, West Virginia. He graduated from the University of Mississippi with a Bachelor of Science in Medical Laboratory Science. Dr. Bennett is a current member of the American College of Physicians, American Society for Clinical Pathology, American Osteopathic Association, American College of Osteopathic Internists, and American College of Physicians. In his spare time, Chase enjoys playing the upright bass, jiu-jitsu, and hunting.
	Tara George, MD, PGY 3 (Chief Resident) Dr. George received her Medical Degree from the American University of the Caribbean School of Medicine, Sint Maarten. She attended the University of Pennsylvania where she earned her Master of Education in Theory of Medical Education and Curriculum Development. She obtained a Bachelor of Science in Microbiology and Immunology from the University of Rochester, Rochester, NY. Dr. George is a current member of the American College of Physicians. In her spare time, Tara enjoys exploring the beaches of Florida, linguistics, scuba diving, snorkeling, and paddle boarding with her dog, Lilly.
	John P. Raper, DO, PGY 3 Dr. Raper received his Medical Degree from Lincoln Memorial University-DeBusk College of Osteopathic Medicine, Harrogate, TN. He graduated from Rhodes University in Memphis, TN with a Bachelor of Science in Neuroscience. Dr. Raper is a current member of the American College of Physicians, Tennessee Osteopathic Medical Association, American Osteopathic Association, and the American College of Osteopathic Internists. In his spare time, John enjoys many sports including golf, snow skiing, tennis, running and fencing, in addition to water sports such as boating, kayaking and canoeing. He is also an avid guitar player and enjoys carpentry.
	Chelsey Stewart, DO, PGY 3 Dr. Stewart received her Medical Degree from Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine, Auburn Campus. She graduated from the University of Alabama, Huntsville, AL, with a Bachelor of Science in Chemistry and Biology. Dr. Stewart is a current member of the American College of Physicians, Medical Association of Alabama, Alabama Osteopathic Medical Association, American Society of Clinical Oncology, American Osteopathic Association, American College of Osteopathic Internists, and the American Association of Cancer Research. Chelsey is an avid cross fitter, nature enthusiast, and dog lover. She enjoys hikes or nature walks with her two rescue dogs.
	Abdalaziz (Aziz) Tabash, MD, PGY 3 Dr. Tabash received his Medical Degree from Cairo University Faculty of Medicine, Egypt. Aziz obtained his research experience at Baylor College of Medicine and MD Anderson Cancer Center, Houston, TX, where he was instrumental in the publication of several peer review journal articles, abstracts and case reports. He is a current member of the American Medical Association and American College of Physicians. In his spare time, Aziz enjoys soccer, swimming, cooking, and reading.

Internal Medicine Residents Academic Year 2022-2023

Victor H. Camba, DO PGY 2

Dr. Camba received his Medical Degree from Alabama College of Osteopathic Medicine, Dothan, AL. He graduated from University of South Florida, Tampa with a Master's Degree in Medical Science and a Bachelor's Degree in Biomedical Science. He obtained a Master of Science in Adult Education Degree from Troy University, Troy, AL. While at ACOM, Dr Camba participated as a simulation and clinical skills fellow and a student fellow researcher. Dr. Camba is a current member of the American College of Physicians, American College of Osteopathic Internists and the American Osteopathic Association. In his spare time, Victor enjoys power lifting, automotive repair, photography and history.

Conor Haas, DO PGY 2

Dr. Haas received his Medical Degree from Arkansas College of Osteopathic Medicine, Fort Smith, AR. He obtained a Bachelor of Science Degree in Biology from Maryville University of Saint Louis, St. Louis, MO. He is a current member of the American College of Physicians, American Osteopathic Association, American College of Physicians and the American College of Osteopathic Internist. In his spare time, Conor enjoys computers, fishing, and biking.

Kyle Knight, DO PGY 2

Dr. Knight received his Medical Degree from William Carey University College of Osteopathic Medicine, Hattiesburg, MS. He graduated from Belhaven University, Jackson, MS with a Bachelor's Degree in Biology. Dr. Knight is a current member of the Mississippi Osteopathic Medical Association, American Medical Association, American College of Physicians, American College of Osteopathic Internists and the Society of General Internal Medicine. In his spare time, Kyle enjoys mission trips, video games, board games, sports and outdoor activities.

Brian Martin, DO PGY 2

Dr. Martin received his Medical Degree from Lincoln Memorial University – DeBusk College of Osteopathic Medicine, Harrogate, TN. He obtained a Master's Degree in Biomedical Professions from Lincoln Memorial University, Harrogate, TN and a Bachelor of Science Degree in Biology from University of Oklahoma, Norman OK. Dr. Martin is a current member of the American Osteopathic Association, American Medical Association, and the Mississippi Osteopathic Medical Association. In his spare time, Brian enjoys guitar, cooking, computer gaming, reading non-fiction historical books-especially ancient and medieval history and watching football.

Erin E. Nichols, DO PGY 2

Dr. Nichols received her Medical Degree from Lincoln Memorial University – DeBusk College of Osteopathic Medicine, Harrogate, TN. She graduated Cum Laude from University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY, with a Bachelor's Degree in Medical Laboratory Sciences. Dr. Nichols is a current member of Tennessee Osteopathic Medical Association, American Society for Clinical Pathology, American Osteopathic Association, American College of Osteopathic Internists and the American College of Physicians. In her spare time, Erin enjoys dancing, traveling, cooking and spending time with her niece

Dagmara Olsen, MD PGY 2

Dr. Olsen received her Medical Degree from Poznan University of Medical Sciences, Poznan, Poland. She completed clinical internship and internal medicine rotations in Poland, then moved to California where she served in various medical practice roles.

Dr. Olsen is a current member of the American College of Physicians. In her spare time, Daga enjoys travel, comedy, art and has a love for people and animals.

Internal Medicine Residents Academic Year 2022-2023

Anan Abu Rmilah, MD PGY 1

Dr. Abu Rmilah received his Medical Degree from Cairo University Faculty of Medicine, Egypt. Anan served as a postdoctoral research fellow at Mayo Clinic, Rochester, MN, where he was instrumental in the publication of several peer review journal articles, abstracts and case reports. He is a current member of the American Medical Association and American College of Physicians. In his spare time, Anan enjoys hiking, biking, camping, cooking and barbecue activities.

Lindsey Bedford, DO PGY 1

Dr. Bedford received her Medical Degree from A.T. Still University of Health Sciences Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine, Kirksville, Missouri. She obtained a Bachelor of Science Degree in Biology from University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin. Lindsey is a current member of the American Osteopathic Association, American College of Osteopathic Internists and American College of Physicians and in her spare time enjoys swimming, hiking, baking, reading, playing piano and attending sports events.

Michael Coty Maddox, DO PGY 1

Dr. Maddox received his Medical Degree from the Lincoln Memorial University DeBusk College of Osteopathic Medicine, Harrogate, Tennessee. He obtained a Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing from Mississippi University for Women, Columbus, MS and completed Pre-Medical Coursework at Mississippi State University, Starkville, Mississippi. He is a current member of the American Osteopathic Association, American College of Osteopathic Internists, American Medical Association and American College of Physicians. In his spare time, Coty enjoys family centered activities, boating, fishing, hunting, gardening and is also a certified flight instructor.

Carlos Pfeiffer, DO PGY 1

Dr. Pfeiffer received his Medical Degree from Idaho College of Osteopathic Medicine, Boise, Idaho. He obtained a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Chemistry and Psychology from Florida International University, Sweetwater, Florida. He is a current member of the American Osteopathic Association, American College of Osteopathic Internists, American Medical Association and American College of Physicians. In his spare time, Carlos enjoys Judo, soccer, hiking, reading and spending time with family.

Justin Scobey, MD PGY 1

Dr. Scobey received his Medical Degree from Trinity School of Medicine, St. Vincent and the Grenadines. He obtained a Bachelor of Biological Sciences Degree in Biochemistry and Cellular/Molecular Biology as well as a Bachelor's Degree in Modern Foreign Languages and Literatures from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tennessee. He is a current member of the American Medical Association and American College of Physicians. In his spare time Justin enjoys traveling, camping, backpacking, kayaking, spending time with family & friends, and cheering for the Tennessee Vols.

Madilyn Slater, DO PGY 1

Dr. Slater received her Medical Degree from Kansas City University College of Osteopathic Medicine, Kansas City Missouri. She obtained a Bachelor of Biological Sciences Degree from Mississippi State University, Starkville, Mississippi, where she also served as an undergraduate research assistant. She is a current member of the American Osteopathic Association, American College of Osteopathic Internists, and American College of Physicians. In her spare time, Maddie enjoys baking, camping, fishing, lake activities, board & card games.